(i) Reconnaissance survey (i.e. preliminary fixing of the route alignment by going hurriedly through the country and taking rough measurements by steps etc.) is halfway through; detailed survey will be started next month.

(ii) Tenders for the sub-station equipment have been received by the Director General of Industries and Supplies and are under his scrutiny. He would tabulate and forward them to the Electrical Commissioner for recommendations.

The total approximate cost of the sub-station equipment would be Rs.40 lakhs.

(iii) Smaller project from Harihar can be started independently of the bigger project, but this will also require a year more to start since the minimum period for the supply of switchgear and sub-station equipment exceeds one year.
